CHAIR
PRISCILLA PLATT
HEENAN BLAIKIE

Priscilla has recognized expertise in privacy and access to information law and her practice focuses exclusively in these areas. Priscilla has acted for clients in a wide variety of contexts ranging from policy and practice to regulatory complaints, appeals and litigation, including judicial review. Her clients include entities in the public and broader public sectors as well as in the private sector.

To enhance knowledge of these areas, Priscilla and Adam Kardash co-authored and launched Heenan Blaikie's Electronic Guide to Ontario's access and privacy legislation in April 2007. The Guide, AccessPrivacy.ca, is an innovative tool to assist institutions and the public to understand the developments of the law in these areas.

An active member of several professional organizations, Priscilla was a founding member of the Privacy Law sections of both the Canadian Bar Association and the Ontario Bar Association (OBA), and served as the first chair of both sections. She is currently an executive member of the Privacy Law Section and the Public Sector Lawyers' Section of the OBA.

Priscilla's background includes significant experience in the public sector in relation to privacy and access to information law where, as Senior Counsel with the Ministry of the Attorney General in Ontario, she provided advice in these areas.

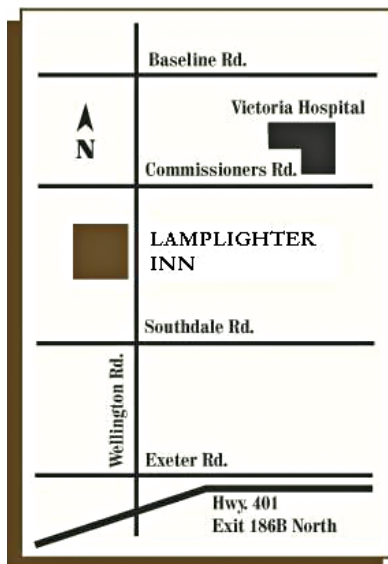

Priscilla was an adjunct professor of Information Law at the University of Toronto Law School from 2007 to 2008 and in May 2007, was appointed Special Counsel, Privacy Law, to the Inquiry into Pediatric Forensic Pathology in Ontario. She was awarded the first Karen Spector Award for Excellence in Privacy Law by the Ontario Bar Association in 2006.

CO-CHAIR
JENNIFER A. SMOUT
SOLICITOR, CITY OF LONDON

Jennifer A. Smout is a solicitor with the Corporation of the City of London practising in the areas of municipal law, licensing, privacy law and corporate governance. She has recently returned to the City of London after serving as an adjudicator with the Ontario Municipal Board (OMB) for four and a half years. Prior to her appointment to the OMB, she was a solicitor for the City of London where her areas of practice included land development, land use planning and zoning, expropriation law, real estate law, municipal law, and corporate and commercial law.

In addition to her public roles, Jennifer has private experience gained from her association with three prominent London law firms. Jennifer is an active participant in many professional associations and community organizations. She has been a guest speaker for many continuing education programs for the Ontario Bar Association, the Law Society of Upper Canada, the Canadian Institute, the UWO Faculty of Law and the Ivey Business School.

Jennifer is the co-author of a book on land use planning and development law. She is a graduate of McMaster University and the University of Western Ontario.
