PRISCILLA PLATT

Priscilla Platt joined Heenan Blaikie as counsel in March 2006, bringing over 25 years of widely recognized expertise in privacy, access to information and related legal issues.

Priscilla's practice focuses almost exclusively on privacy and access to information law. In these areas, she has worked on a wide variety of regulatory matters involving entities in the public and broader public sectors as well as in the private sector. In this capacity, Priscilla has represented clients before the regulators across Canada, at the federal and provincial levels as well as before the courts, in relation to privacy complaints and access to information requests/appeals. Priscilla has also assisted clients with compliance matters in these areas of the law, relating to the development of appropriate policies, service provider arrangements, audits, reviews, negotiations, privacy impact assessments and responses to privacy breaches.

An active member of several professional organizations, Priscilla was a founding member of the Privacy Law Sections of both the Canadian Bar Association and the Ontario Bar Association (OBA), and served as the first Chair of both sections. She is currently an Executive member of the Privacy Law Section and the Public Sector Lawyers' Section of the OBA.

Priscilla received the first Karen Spector Award for Excellence in Privacy Law from the Ontario Bar Association in 2006, and the Attorney General of Ontario Awards for Professional Achievement in 1999 & for Innovation in 2004. She is an Adjunct Professor of "Information Law" at the University of Toronto Law School.
